

1 Diagnosis/delivering difficult news

- Plan of care
- Time
- Choices
- Environment

2 Labour and birth

- Birth plan
- Paperwork

3 After birth/aftercare

- Registration/certification
- Memory-making
- Post-mortem/histology
- Funeral/sensitive disposal

4 Discharge

- Aftercare
- Feedback
- Ongoing emotional support

6 Staff care

- Identify training needs
- Recognise own support needs
- Support structures in place

5 Subsequent pregnancy

- Labour and birth
- Antenatal care
- Pre-conception

Continuity of care
Family centred
Communication
Parent-led

This information should be read in conjunction with the National Bereavement Care Pathway documentation. For further information contact your Bereavement Lead.